

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On December 1, 1949, a boy child was born and christened Randall Stuefen; and,

WHEREAS, Randy grew to manhood in Elkton, South Dakota, and received diplomas from Elkton High School and South Dakota State University; and,

WHEREAS, Randy married Betty Watkins on December 27, 1980, and they have been blessed with good health and an enduring love; and,

WHEREAS, Randy is employed as Associate Director of the Business Research Bureau in the School of Business at U.S.D., but his usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as he approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, Randy Stuefen will reach his FORTIETH birthday, an event which will end his trustworthiness and relegate his social life to rocking chairs and laprugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Randy Stuefen is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim December 1, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Randy's many friends and relatives to mock him and rub it in because he is now a member in good standing of the "OVER THE HILL GANG."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazel
